JOHN W. ALLYN
Owner & President

". . . our goal is near."

STUART K. HOLCOMB
Executive Vice President and General Manager

Stu Holcomb's ability to select individuals to fill the key positions in his organization is not the only reason for his successful administration through the years.

"Once he hires them," White Sox President John W. Allyn explained, "he gives them enough rein to allow them to do their assignment uninhibitively in the method they believe best."

White Sox Field Manager Chuck Tanner and Director of Player Personnel Roland Hemond are two excellent examples of Holcomb's theory. Another assistant of Holcomb's who now is famous in the sports world is Kansas City Chief Coach Hank Stram.

Holcomb probably gained his current notoriety after coaching football championship teams at Purdue, Miami, and West Point. He also coached in three Shrine All-Star games; twice as head coach.

He also coached baseball at Findlay, Muskingum, and West Point to round out 24 years as an athletic mentor which he followed with 11 years as Athletic Director at Northwestern University.

He is a member of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame and the Helms Football Hall of Fame.

When asked in a pre-season interview to predict the White Sox's finish in 1972, Holcomb answered, "Gentlemen, it's not wise to be overly optimistic with so many intangibles involved. However, I will concede our goal is near."

CHUCK TANNER
Field Manager

Chuck Tanner has practically engulfed Chicagoland with his handsome smile and quick wit. He has definitely engulfed the hearts and minds of the Chicago White Sox players. Writers, broadcasters, and fans as well as players have found Tanner is a man's man. He is straight with whomever he may be communicating and the individual immediately seems to sense it. This allows him to successfully aid the player in reaching peak performance. This ability operating from a firm foundation of a 25-year baseball background picked up a shodden cellar team of 1970 to a third place Western Division finish in 1971. He began organized play at Shenango High in his home in New Castle, Pa. He earned 10 letters in baseball, basketball and football; and he was captain of the latter two in his senior year. After American Legion ball he was signed to a pro contract by Jack Reider of the Boston Braves. He was named on the 1949 Western League All-Star Team and led the league in hits (195) in 1950. The next year he hit safely in 29 consecutive games for Atlanta in the Southern Association. As a rookie with Milwaukee Braves in 1955 he became second player in major league history to hit a home run on the first pitch in his first time at bat. Was named Milwaukee's Rookie of Year in 1955 and Chicago's in 1971. In 1959 he led American Association in doubles (41) and was named to the league All-Star team. In 1968 he was voted Texas League Manager of Year and 1970 Co-Manager of Year in the Pacific Coast League. His accomplishments with the Sox in 1971 earned him many accolades by Chicagoland organizations such as American Legion's Distinguished Service Award, Lion's Legion of Merit, and Pitch and Hit Club's Outstanding Achievement Award.

SAIN

LONNETT

JOHN SAIN
Coach

John Sain, 53, proved in his first season with the White Sox that his reputation as the premier pitching coach in baseball is certainly justified. His mound crew not only reduced the team earned run average from 4.54 in 1970 to 3.12 in 1971, but they struck out 976 opponents to establish a new club record. Wilbur Wood's 22-13 season (and first over 20) gave Sain his tenth 20-game winner in 10 years of coaching in the Major Leagues. As a pitcher in his playing days, Sain equalled or topped the 20 mark four times with the Boston Braves. He pitched in six World Series and two All-Star Games. He joined the Sox in late September of 1970.

JOE LONNETT
Coach

Joe Lonnett, 45, is starting his second season as a member of the White Sox coaching staff. His work with the Sox catchers has been a definite asset to the team as indicated by the improvements in their defensive abilities. This also has added confidence to the pitching staff and consequently aided in their improvement during 1971. Last year he served as the Sox third base coach. He enjoyed a successful minor league career as a catcher starting in 1969 and saw four years service with the Philadelphia Phillies.

AL MONCHAK
Coach

Al Monchak, 52, is another coach who joined the White Sox with Field Manager Chuck Tanner in 1971. He began play in professional baseball as an infielder in 1937 at Albany, New York. His outstanding ability earned him berths on the Long Horn League All-Star Teams in 1949, 1950, and 1951. He managed eight teams from 1949-61 before joining the California Angels as a Scout in 1962. Al quickly gained the long overdue recognition as one of the outstanding instructors in the game during his first year in 1971 as a coach at the Major League level.

JIM MAHONEY
Coach

This is Jim Mahoney's first season as a coach with the White Sox. Last season he coached at Asheville in the Southern League. The team was only one game shy of tying the pennant winners. Mahony, 37, began his baseball career as a member of the Red Sox organization in 1953. In his first full season he led the Appalachian League in home runs (23) and stolen bases (21). In 1960, Mahoney led the American Association shortstops in total chances (743), assists (507), and double plays (90). Jim was always considered an outstanding fielding shortstop throughout his career. Manager Larry Sherry was lavish in his praise of Mahoney as an instructor at Asheville and attributed a great deal of his player's progress in 1971 to Mahoney's ability to transmit his knowledge to the players.

ALVARADO, Luis — IF

5′ 9″ 162 R-R
Born 1/15/49 Lajas, P.R.

Luis is considered to be one of the finest glovemen in baseball. In 1967, his first season of professional baseball, he tied the Midwest League in double plays for shortstops with 60. With Louisville in 1969, he was voted the Most Valuable Player in the International League after leading the loop in hits (166), doubles (30), and runs scored (89). In one game against Detroit last season, Luis participated in four double plays (started two, middle man on two) while handling 10 chances flawlessly to aid in an 8-2 victory.

Infielder Mike Andrews
Long Hitter with Sharp Eyes

ANDREWS, Mike — IF

6′ 3″ — 195 — R-R

Born 7/9/43 — Los Angeles, Calif.

Mike is one of the longest-hitting second basemen in the major leagues. If Manager Chuck Tanner decides to play slugger Dick Allen at first base, the White Sox will possess the most armipotent infield in the major leagues as Bill Melton, the American League Home Run Champ, is a certainty at third base. Mike has one of the best eyes of the team at the plate. He led the Sox in walks (67) last year despite the fact he only participated in two thirds of the season. He proved his versatility in 1971 by effectively playing first base when needed. His fine .282 batting average was zooming (he hit .308 and drove in 20 runs during August) when he broke his left wrist Sept. 1. He was a prep star in football, basketball, and baseball. He was an All-American Junior College pass receiver at El Camino College before signing a pro baseball contract in 1962.

ATKINSON, Mike — RHP

6′ 5″ — 180 — R-R

Born 12/20/51 — St. Louis, Mo.

Mike had one of the best strikeout-innings pitched ratio in the White Sox organization. He fanned 178 batters in 157 innings in 1971 while posting a 11-7 record at Appleton to match his sophomore season in professional baseball at Appleton and Duluth-Superior. He continued to show improvement in the Florida Winter Instructional League at Sarasota (5-0, 1.65 ERA) where he began his professional career in 1969 after being signed by Scout Walt Widmayer.

BAHNSEN, Stan — RHP

6′ 2″ — 188 — R-R

Born 12/15/44 — Council, Bluffs, Ia.

Stan should gain a starting berth in the White Sox' pitching rotation with his outstanding record with the New York Yankees. The hard-throwing righthander has been a regular starter for the Yankees the last four years. Last season he hurled 14 complete games and won 14 while recording an ERA of 3.35. He was named American League Rookie of the Year in 1968 when he won 17 games and posted an excellent 2.06 ERA. He has hurled two no-hitters in professional baseball: July 17, 1966 with Toledo and July 9, 1967 in a perfect 7-inning game for Syracuse. Stan also is an excellent bunter. In fact, he led the Yankees in sacrifice hits several seasons. He has completed his military obligation and attended the University of Nebraska before signing a professional pact.

BRADLEY, Tom — RHP

6′ 3″ — 185 — R-R

Born 3/16/47 — Asheville, N.C.

Tom became the White Sox's ace right-hander last season by winning 15 games and striking out 206 opponents. Both are season highs for this intelligent young professional who recently earned a degree in Latin at the University of Maryland. Only Sox pitchers Ed Walsh, Gary Peters, and Wilbur Wood (last season) have fanned more batters in the 71-year history of the club. Tom was featured in a documentary by a major network during the winter. He pitched for Manager Chuck Tanner while in Hawaii (11-1, 2.53 ERA) and also studied under John Sain, Sox Pitching Coach, while with the California Angels. He was signed by Angel Scout Gil English and had also been recommended by former Angel scout Al Monchak who is now a White Sox Coach.

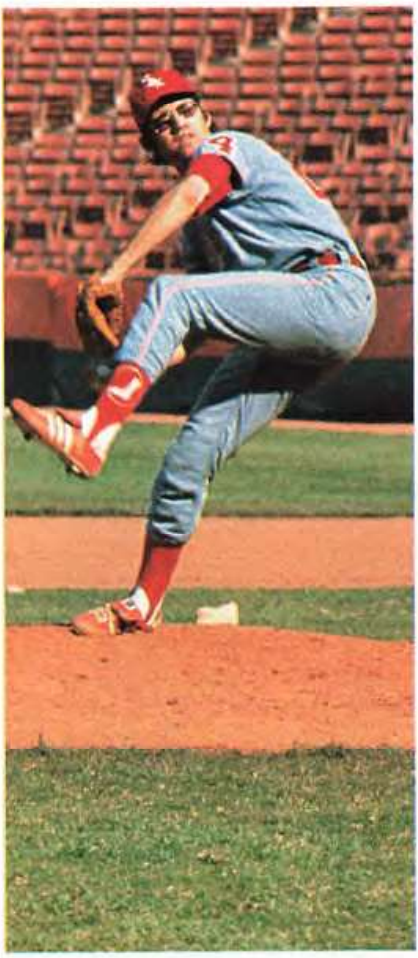
CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: A pitching champion (ERA) must pitch 162 or more innings. A batting champion must have at least 502 plate appearances; however, if he lacks that total he can still qualify if by adding enough plate appearances to reach that figure his average would still be the highest.



Sox Righthanders Tom Bradley (left) and Bart Johnson. As a pair they won 27 games and fanned 359. Their ERA's ranked 13th (tie) and 11th in League, respectively.

BRINKMAN, Chuck — C

6′ 1″ — 185 — R-R

Born 9/16/44 — Cincinnati, Ohio

Chuck is regarded as one of the finest throwing catchers in the league. He is also an excellent receiver as evidenced by the fact he played errorless ball in 1971. These abilities matched with his affirmative attitude and personality make him a great team man. He was definitely influencial in the vast improvement of the Sox pitching staff last season. He is brother of Detroit's Eddie Brinkman. Chuck played for Aragua of the Venezuelan League last winter. He was signed by Scout Fred Shaffer.

EDDY, Don — LHP

5′ 11″ — 170 — L-L

Born 10/25/46 — Mason City, Ia.

Opened and finished with the White Sox last season. He pitched for Tucson of the Pacific Coast League in between. He is rated as an excellent relief pitcher which was substantiated in 1971 when he allowed only six earned runs in 23 innings of relief pitching for the White Sox. After completing his military obligation, he established a brilliant 18-3 won-lost record in 1969 at Appleton (including an outstanding 1.81 ERA) and followed with a 10-4 record (including a sizzling 1.37 ERA) at Tucson in 1970. He was signed by Scout Bill Kimball.

EGAN, Tom — C

6′ 4″ — 215 — R-R

Born 6/9/46 — Los Angeles, Calif.

Big Tom was the only player in American League baseball to hit a home run on or over the White Sox Park roof in 1971. Only 13 players have ever accomplished this feat. The first was the mighty Babe Ruth. Tom was an extremely effective pinch-hitter (5 hits, 10 at bats, .500 average). He caught every game for a month when teammate Ed Herrmann was hospitalized with an appendectomy to save team from possible relapse with his stamina. Only one league catching corps drove in more runs than Tom, Ed, and Chuck Brinkman (70). Tom, who is tallest catcher in the major leagues, also played for Manager Chuck Tanner in minors. In high school he was one of the most sought-after All-American Quarterbacks in the nation. He also batted .520 his senior year at El Rancho High in Pico Rivera, Calif., and after turning pro he led the Texas League catchers in fielding in 1966. He made the league All-Star team that year and in 1967. His first major league home run as an Angel was a pitch thrown by White Sox ace Wilbur Wood, now a batterymate.

FORSTER, Terry — LHP

6′ 3″ — 200 — L-L

Born 1/14/52 — Sioux Falls, S.D.

Terry made the jump to the major leagues in only one year. He is regarded as one of the top pitching prospects in baseball. He was the White Sox' No. 2 draft choice in 1970. After an excellent start at Appleton (6-1, 1.33 ERA) and an impressive spring training in 1971, he was promoted to the major league roster. Early in his career as a Sox relief pitcher with the bases loaded, Terry retired three batters on four pitches in his first appearance at Yankee Stadium. Sox Scouts recommending acquisition of Forster were George Noga, Jack Keilch, Doc Bennett, and Gary Johnson.

FRAILING, Ken — LHP

6′ 0″ — 190 — L-L

Born 1/19/48 — Marion, Wisc.

Ken is one of several promising left-handers under Pitching Coach John Sain's tutelage. Ken threw a no-hitter while pitching for Mazatlan in the Mexican Pacific League in the winter of 1970-71. He had an excellent year in the Florida Winter Instructional League this past fall. In fact, he allowed only nine runs in 56 innings for a 1.45 ERA. Then, he pitched very well for Hermosillo of the Mexican Pacific League through the rest of the winter. His professional career began immediately after he was graduated at Marion (Wis.) High School at which time he was signed by Farm Director Glen Miller. He was recommended by Scouts Hugh Wise, Fred Hasselman, and Eric Kitzman.

HERRMANN, Ed — C

6′ 1″ — 200 — L-R

Born 8/27/46 — San Diego, Calif.

Although an emergency appendectomy hampered his overall productivity with the bat, Ed did a tremendous job handling Wilbur Wood's tricky knuckleball. He made only three errors while handling 615 total chances last season. He is regarded as one of the toughest players in the game. He excells in blocking plate and breaking up double plays as a runner. In 1967 at Evansville of the Southern League, he led all catchers in put outs, assists, and fielding percentage. At Crawford High School in San Diego, Ed was team captain, Player of Year, and led league in home runs and RBIs. Ed was acquired from the Milwaukee Braves organization in the first-year player draft in 1964 on recommendation of Scout Hollis Thurston.

HORLEN, Joe — RHP

6' 0" — 170 — R-R

Born 8/14/37 — San Antonio, Tex.

Joe completed his 11th season with the White Sox in 1971. Not only is he a vital cog to the pitching staff for his professional skills and abilities, but he is very important to the team's positive morale and cohesiveness. For example, he was selected as the team's Player Representative last year. On the mound, he posted his best season record in 1967 with a 19-7 mark, including a highly impressive 2.06 earned run average and a no-hit victory over Detroit. However, his lowest ERA in the majors was a brilliant 1.88 recorded in 1964. Prior to his professional career, Joe attended Oklahoma State University on a baseball scholarship and in 1959 pitched his team to the NCAA championship. He was recommended by Scout Ted Lyons.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE: A reliefer earns a "save" if he faces the potential tying or leading run, or by pitching one or more perfect innings in protecting a two-run lead, or if his team was three runs ahead when he entered and he pitched at least 2 innings in finishing up the victory. Only one "save" can be given per game and a reliefer who gets credit for the victory is not eligible for the "save."

HOTTMAN, Ken — OF

5′ 11″ — 190 — R-R

Born 5/7/48 — Stockton, Calif.

Ken found the "key" of successful hitting in 1971. The strong young White Sox slammed 37 home runs in 123 games at Asheville to lead the Southern League and the entire Sox organization in fourbaggers. Had he maintained that pace over a 162 game season, he could conceiveably have hit 50 home runs. He also drove in 116 runs and scored 99 to pace the Sox minor leaguers while hitting .302. Ken, who resides in Elk Grove, Calif., swung the heaviest bat on the club (38 oz.) last season in his few appearances with the Sox, but was never late on the ball even against Oakland's Vida Blue, the 1971 Cy Young winner. He also played with Los Mochis in the Mexican Pacific League during the winter. He was signed by Scout Dario Lodigiani.

JOHNSON, Bart — RHP

6′ 5″ — 195 — R-R

Born 1/3/50 — Torrance, Calif.

In 1971, Bart proved to the baseball world that he was not only major league material, but that he was a winner. He won 12, lost 10, and was one of three White Sox regulars to record an earned run average below 3.00. Also, his 2.93 (10th best in American League) was obtained while pitching in pressure situations as 37 of his 53 appearances were in relief. Bart not only had a good strike out ratio (153 in 178 innings), but he collected 14 saves to lead the Sox reliefmen. During his 37 relief appearances, he finished the game in 24 of them. Among pitchers in the American League who started and relieved as Bart did, only two (Roland Fingers of Oakland and Fred Scherman of Detroit) finished more games in relief. In 1969 he led the Midwest League in strikeouts with 200. As a prep pitcher at Torrance (Calif.) High he posted a 20-2 record and was 23-2 in American Legion play. His teammate at Torrance was Sox righthander Steve Kealey. Bart was signed by Scouts George Noga and Doc Bennett.

JOHNSTONE, Jay — OF

Born 11/20/45 — Manchester, Conn.

Jay not only improved his batting average 24 points from the 1970 season, but he hit more home runs in 1971 than he has hit since signing a professional baseball contract in 1963. He seemed to be getting stronger or nearing his prime as the season progressed, because many of his final home runs reached the upper stands in right and right-centerfield. He hit 16 over the American League fences although he only played in 124 games and several were brief defensive appearances in centerfield. Also two of his home runs were hit during pinch hit appearances. Jay is a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve. He was graduated at Edgewood High in West Covina, Calif., where he was an All-Star selection in football and basketball as well as baseball.

KEALEY, Steve — RHP

6′ 0″ — 185 — R-R

Born 5/13/47 — Torrance, Calif.

Steve pitched in more games last season than any other White Sox pitcher. Of the 54 games in which he participated, 53 were relief appearances in which gained six saves and finished the game 26 times. In 1969, in his first start in the major leagues, Steve had the unique experience of hurling a shutout against Baltimore. Probably the oddest occurance of his professional career came in 1970 when he threw only one pitch during a relief assignment against Kansas City and as his teammates recorded a triple play. He was a member of the Midwest League All-Stars while at Quad Cities in 1967 when he fanned 134 batters in only 111 innings and established a 2.27 ERA. He also played outfield as well as pitcher with teammate Bart Johnson at Torrance (Calif.) High. He still possesses a powerful bat as indicated by the fact he hit a home run in only 10 times at bat last year. The three run blast netted him a 6-3 mound victory over Minnesota. Steven also pitched for Manager Chuck Tanner at El Paso and Hawaii.

KELLY, Pat — OF

6' 1" — 185 — L-L

Born 7/30/44 — Philadelphia, Pa.

Pat had an excellent offensive as well as defensive season in 1971. In fact, he was only two hits short of the charm circle of .300. He was second on the team in stolen bases despite the fact he only played in 67 games with the Sox—a team which was second in the American League in stolen bases. Before being elevated to the White Sox, he thrilled the Tucson Toros fans with his speed on the basepaths. He not only stole 15 bases in 75 games, but hit seven triples, 18 doubles, six home runs, and 76 singles to produce an outstanding .355 split season batting average. In 1969, he stole 40 bases to fall only nine shy of the rookie major league record. Four of those he stole in one game against the Yankees (May 30). His .321 at Charlotte in 1966 was second in the Southern League and in 1965 at Wilson he led the Carolina League outfielders in putouts. He has four brothers who all have excellent athletic backgrounds, including the famous Leroy Kelly of the Cleveland Browns. Pat is a U.S. Army Reserve Veteran, was acclaimed as one of top nine dressers in Kansas City, and is a favorite of the fans wherever he appears.

MAY, Carlos — IF-OF

Born 5/17/48 — Birmingham, Ala.

Carlos had his finest season at the plate in 1971 since reaching the major leagues in 1968. His .294 led all the White Sox regulars as did his doubles (21), triples (7), stolen bases (16), and most winning runs driven in (16). He tied Bill Melton in most sacrifice flies (5) and was runnerup on the team behind Bill in RBIs (70 to 86) and runs scored (64 to 72). Only Mike Andrews (67) collected more walks than Carlos (62). He played first base on a regular basis for the first time in his professional career last year and improved measureably as the season progressed. Carlos added to his experience by playing at Ponce of the Puerto Rican League during the winter months. Carlos' brother Lee May, a National League All-Star first baseman in 1971, plays with the Houston Astros. Signed by Sam Hairston and Walt Widmayer.

MELTON, Bill — IF

6′ 1″ — 195 — R-R

Born 7/7/45 — Gulfport, Miss.

Bill became the first White Sox player in the history of the Club to win the American League Home Run Championship when he hit 33 to gain the prestigious title in 1971. His dramatic finish (i.e. three homers in the last two games) will be long remembered by the devoted Sox fans who witnessed and felt the excitement of sports history materializing before them. Bill had broken the club home run mark with 33 the season before (1970); therefore, his second 33 tied his own infant club record. Although Melton now has 91 home runs and ranks fourth on the all-time Sox career home run list, he is just beginning his fourth full season in 1972 and, as he did not play baseball until he entered Citrus Junior College in Covina, Calif., his limits are unknown. His fearlessness at the plate caused him to be hit 11 times (second most in league) and his aggressiveness at third base netted him the second most assists and total chances of any third baseman in both leagues. He even recorded a better fielding percentage (.9682) than the touted "hot sackman" Brooks Robinson of Baltimore (.9681). Although he did not play baseball in high school at Durate, Calif., he was a outstanding end and linebacker in football. He was signed by Scout Hollis Thurston.

Dan is one of the tallest players in White Sox organization. He is a hard thrower, consequently is an outstanding relief prospect. He has been compared—his physical makeup and his throwing style—with former relief star Dick Radatz. Larry Sherry, Asheville's manager last season, changed Neumeier's delivery to more side-arm and Neumeier became extremely effective during the latter part of the 1971 season. REICHARDT, Rick — OF

Born 3/16/43 — Madison, Wis.

Rick had his second-best season at the plate in 1971 since becoming a major leaguer. His 19 home runs were only two shy of his 1968 high and his .278 batting average is well above his career average and second only to 1966 high of .288. The latter season was when Rick tied a major league record with two home runs in one inning (8th at Boston on Apr. 30, 1966). Obviously with unintentions, he set a new club record with Angels in 1968 when he was hit 18 times in one season by opposing pitchers. His first major league home run was Sept. 15, 1965, against (now teammate) Joe Horlen to win 14-inning game for Angels, 2-1. Rick was an honor student at Jacobs High in Stevens Point, Wis., where he won 12 letters in football, basketball, and track. He won the Wisconsin prep broad jump championship. Ironically, he did not compete in baseball until at the University of Wisconsin. There he not only became the only player in history to lead the Big Ten in batting two consecutive years, .429 as a sophomore and .472 as a junior, but still owns the Big Ten record for stolen bases. He also was an outstanding receiver in football and played in the 1963 Rose Bowl against USC. He obtained a degree in psychology and is the eldest son of nine children.

RICHARD, Lee — IF

5′ 11″ — 165 — R-R

Born 9/18/48 — Lafayette, La.

Lee played with Estrellas and Licey in the Dominican Republic this past winter and was chosen as the league's All-Star shortstop. He is rated with Pat Kelly as the two fastest men in the Sox organization. For example, Lee scored from second base on a sacrifice fly to beat the A's 2-1 last season. Lee, who is often called "Bee Bee" by his teammates and fans, has one of the strongest throwing arms of any active infielder in baseball. With his speed, arm, and ability he is tabbed as a possible "super star." He was moved up to the major leagues in one year after he was signed out of Southern University in Baton Rouge, La. He was recommended by Scouts Mel Preibisch, Sam Hairston, and Steve Vrablik.

ROMO, Vicente — RHP

6′ 1″ — 195 — R-R

Born 5/21/43 — Sonora, Mexico

Vicente had a brilliant beginning last season. After gaining a save in the opening game in 1971 at Oakland, he gave another great relief performance in the opening home game before the Sox's largest opening home crowd of 43,253 to gain credit for the win. These two performances launched the White Sox into their conversion from a 1970 cellar team to a third place team in the Western Division. Vicente also finished strong. For example, the last 19 times he pitched in relief (a span of 37 innings) he only allowed 21 hits and one run while fanning 23 batters. This computes to an earned run average of 0.24. While his overall 3.38 is not an embarrassing ERA, except for his two starts his ERA for the season would be an impressive 2.38. Vicente pitched for Obregon in the Mexican Pacific League during the winter and in 1970 he was not only the leagues' top hurler but pitched a no-hit game as well.

WILLIAMS, Walt — OF

5′ 6″ — 185 — R-R

Born 12/19/43 — Brownwood, Tex.

Walt, with his exemplary hustle and spirit, is one of the most popular players on the White Sox team. He hit more home runs and drove in more runs last season than any other in his five-year major league career with the Sox. His .294 was 28 points higher than his lifetime major league average at the end of 1970 and only 10 points shy of his best season with the Sox. He only struck out 27 times last season in 114 games. No other player in the White Sox organization (minor leaguers included) who played in as many or more games could boast such a ratio. In other words, he fans only once in 4.2 games or only once each 14.7 appearances at the plate. In the minors, Walt led the Texas League in 1965 with a .330 batting average at Tulsa and led the Pacific Coast League with the same average when Tulsa changed leagues the next year. In his first year as a pro, he hit .381 at Modesto. He was an All-Golden Gate Conference running back in football for San Francisco City College in 1963 and played with the California State American Legion Championship team in 1962. He was a three-sport standout at Galileo High in San Francisco. He was originally signed to a pro contract by former White Sox pitcher Bill Wight.

WOOD, Wilbur — LHP

6′ 0″ — 190 — R-L

Born 10/22/41 — Cambridge, Ma.

Accuracy, attitude, wisdom, and a knuckleball made the "old man" of the young White Sox pitching staff the winningest (22-13) Sox hurler since Early Wynn won 22 games in 1959. By far the most popular hurler on the team, his wit and attitude has contributed greatly to Chuck Tanner's managerial philosophies. Everyone likes Wilbur until he toes the pitching rubber. There, using a elusive knuckleball with uncanny accuracy, he has caused many opposing batsmen to frown. His ERA (1.91) was second in the league only to Oakland's Vida Blue (1.82). Wilbur's 334 innings pitched (most by a Sox hurler since 1917) was second only to Detroit's Mickey Lolich (376) and is over half the total number of innings Wilbur pitched in four previous seasons (656) with the White Sox as a relief hurler. Only two pitchers (Ed Walsh and Gary Peters) in 71-year Sox history have struck out more batters in a season than Wood did in 1971 (210). This total led an improved pitching staff which fanned 976 batters to break the all-time club mark of 971. Wilbur also led the league pitchers in sacrifice bunts (18) and was second in shutouts thrown (7) to Blue (8). His 42 starts were second only to Lolich's 45. He pitched 22 complete games (two more than entire staff in 1970). Of 1,318 batters Wood faced, he unintentionally walked only 62 batters. This computes to one walk for each 21.3 batters faced. Of the top 15 pitchers in the AL, the nearest to Wood was NY's Steve Kline's 16.2 and Lolich's 16.1.

YANCY, Hugh — IF

Born 10/16/49 — Sarasota, Fla.

Hugh stole more bases (19) than any other minor league player in the White Sox organization in 1971. He also led the Florida Winter Instructional League in stolen bases with 16. He not only has a low strikeout ratio (only 43 in 467 times at bat) but is a good hit and run batter. He was a teammate with Howard Porter of the Chicago Bulls at Sarasota (Fla.) High. Hugh was signed by Scout Walt Widmayer.
